Section 4. Payment

A booking fee (deposit) equivalent to 25% of the voyage fee is required upon application and the full balance is payable 60 days before departure date. In the event of the booking occurring less than 60 days before departure then full settlement is required on application. See Terms and Conditions for full details.

Bursary Details:

Will you be applying for a bursary towards the cost of your chosen voyage?: Yes / No (please delete)

Challenge Wales occasionally has funds available to offer bursaries to trainees. This money may be restricted to specific people in accordance with our providers' criteria. Restricted bursary funds will be allocated by the charity and anyone who might be eligible is encouraged to apply. A separate application form, available from Challenge Wales, is required for bursary application. If in receipt of bursary funding, you must provide a short report for the funders, following your voyage.

If you are applying for multiple bursaries which could cover some of your deposit as well as the balance then Challenge Wales will charge a 10% deposit to secure the berth at the point of making the booking.

The voyage must be paid for in full prior to departure to the vessel.

Payment can either be made by either of the following methods, please tick which option you choose:

- ☐ Cheque enclosed with the booking form made payable to: Challenge Wales.
- ☐ BACS transfer to our bank: Account: 632 55 794 Sort code: 20-84-41
- ☐ A pre-purchased Gift Voucher for all or part payment. Gift Voucher No:
- ☐ I have been nominated for this voyage and I am just required to pay the Goodwill Bond
